

13 January 2021

The Rockbridge County Electoral Board met on the above date at 10:00 am the Rockbridge County Board of Supervisors' Room. Present at the meeting were Harry Stone, Richard Hasey, Whitney Huffman, and General Registrar Shelia Hall.

Shelia Hall reported that the newly appointed Glasgow Town Council member resigned but the Council felt like they would be able to appoint a new member until holding a special election.

The Board reviewed the budget for FY 21-22. Shelia reported that she is vetting different poll book vendors including one that uses iPads instead of laptops. She also reported that she has added money to the budget request for printing and voting machine maintenance. The Board agreed to support Shelia as she proceeds with the budget process.

Harry Stone reported that the Board will meet with representatives of the Palmer Community Center and the Rockbridge County Public Schools to discuss using their facilities for elections for the Effinger and Collierstown precincts in the next few weeks.

Next meeting will be at 10:00 am on Feb. 3, 2021.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 am.
