

The Rockbridge County Electoral Board met on the above date at 10:00 am the Rockbridge County Board of Supervisors' Room. Present at the meeting were Harry Stone, Maxwell Caskie, Whitney Huffman, General Registrar Shelia Hall, and assistants/observers Assistant Registrar Bebe Showalter, Former Registrar Marilyn Earhart, Democratic Party Chair Michelle Watkins, Republican Party Representative Scott Risser and Democratic Party Vice Chair.

The Board tested all machines for the November 3, 2020 general election. All passed and were sealed and locked.

After the assistants/observers left the room following the conclusion of L&A testing, the Board discussed the recent Letter to the Editor in the News Gazette and the inaccurate information contained regarding dropboxes. Max Caskie offered to send information to Max Paxton, editor of the paper, to have corrections printed in the next edition. Sheila Hall reported that she is going to place an ad in the News Gazette and The Advocate describing the steps to vote, mail in voting, drop off location, and early voting in person. The Board also discussed how to process the mail in ballots.

The next meeting of the Board will be on September 30, 2020 at 10:00 am.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30 pm.

The Rockbridge County Electoral Board met on the above date at 9:30 am the meeting room of the Rockbridge County General Registrar's Office. Present at the meeting were Harry Stone, Maxwell Caskie, Whitney Huffman, and General Registrar Shelia Hall.

The Board discussed absentee ballot mailings which are to go out in the mail on September 18, 2020 and how the ballots are handled and approved once they are returned. The Board reviewed the current absentee procedures in light of potential action by the General Assembly in their special session. Max Caskie moved that at this time the Board does not want to establish a drop box for absentee ballots for Rockbridge County. Whitney Huffman seconded the motion and it was unanimously passed.

The Board discussed the concerns about the Collierstown precinct and Harry Stone's meeting with the Effinger fire department representatives. The Board was in agreement that we would address all their concerns such as trash disposal, roping off the doorways and set up.

L&A testing will be held on September 9, 2020 at 10:00 am in the Board of Supervisors Meeting Room. Sheila Hall is beginning to call poll workers for the November general election.

Meeting adjourned at 11:00 am.
